El Paso's Susan Eisen was featured at the 2014 Spectrum Awards by the American Gem Trade Association in New York City. Her hand-fabricated yellow gold diamond, 6.00 ct. rhodolite garnet pendant was displayed at the gala press event that honors those in the jewelry design industry. The exhibit displayed jewelry designs by America's top designers to members of the consumer, trade and fashion press. Eisen is an award-winning goldsmith and has won the Women Retailer of the Year Award, the Small Businessperson of the Year and her designs were featured at the 2014 Emmy Awards. She is El Paso's only master gemologist appraiser accredited by the American Society of Appraisers.
